About the Scholarship

The Scholarship has been established to honour and acknowledge the long-standing commitment and contribution by Mr Whaimutu Dewes to the Māori fishing industry from the settlement with the Crown, the establishment of Aotearoa Fisheries, to his years of service through directorships and Chairmanship of both Moana New Zealand and Sealord.

The Scholarship programme is designed for Māori who have a desire to contribute to the enhancement of the Māori kaimoana industry.

Am I eligible?

To be eligible, applicants must prove they:

- are of Māori descent
- are enrolled in, and have been accepted into, a tertiary institution which offers kaimoana enhancement programmes or studies

NB: You may apply at any stage of your programme.

What is a kaimoana enhancement related tertiary programme or study?

Moana New Zealand cites the following examples:

- Sustainable, regenerative, restorative kaimoana e.g. fisheries or aquaculture, which support production of business studies
- Environmental studies which support the production of sustainable kaimoana e.g. climate change, marine ecosystems, marine sciences
- Social or political studies which support fisheries policy development
- Indigenous studies with respect for Mātauranga Māori and anthropology, specifically ahumoana ahutāngata, aquaculture development and understanding Aotearoa's unique global geopolitical position

What is the scholarship's value?

The scholarship's total value is up to $5,000.

This value must be put towards tertiary fees or specialised equipment relevant to your study. The value must be used in the year it is awarded to you.
